

FADS NEWSLETTER – NOVEMBER 2016

Hello everyone and welcome to our November Newsletter. Autumn has well and truly arrived and Christmas approaches at an ever increasing pace. As always, we have a busy schedule ahead, planning our productions for the coming year. See below for further information or visit our website or Facebook page.

NOVEMBER 2016 PRODUCTION: 23rd – 26th November:

The stage is set for “An Evening of Alan Bennett”, a choice which was a joint decision from several of our acting members. The three pieces selected from the pen of the award-winning playwright are “Say Something Happened”, “A Chip in the Sugar” and “Two in Torquay”. Tickets are still available from www.ticketsource.co.uk/fad

FADS' CHRISTMAS PARTY -

Saturday 3rd December: There's still time to obtain tickets for our Christmas Event, which includes a quiz, buffet, mince pies, mulled wine and coffee, all for just £10. If you would like to join us for what promises to be a very enjoyable evening, please contact Jo Smith on 07917 825727.

NEXT PRODUCTION: 22nd – 25th March 2017: Yvonne Baker directs “Prescription for Murder”, a thriller by Norman Robbins. The play is cast and rehearsals will begin shortly. For a synopsis and more information visit our website <http://ferring-drama.org.uk> or our Facebook page.

JUNE 2017 PRODUCTION: Looking ahead, we are delighted to welcome back Graham Batchelor to direct “Quartet” by Ronald Harwood. “Cecily, Reggie and Wilfred reside in a home for retired opera singers in Kent, England. Each year, on 10th October, there is a concert to celebrate Verdi's birthday. Jean, who used to be married to Reggie, arrives at the home and disrupts their equilibrium. She still acts like a diva and refuses to sing, but the show must go on in this funny and poignant play.” Look out for further info and audition date.
