The cost of the ticket will be £10 to include a fish and chip supper. You are asked to bring your own drinks.

The evening will have a James Bond theme and, if you wish, you are invited to dress appropriately to add to the fun. Each evening there will be 10 tables of 6 with each table forming a team. A short series of scenes will be acted out in front of the audience, cabaret style with a break for supper, raffle etc. The audience will be invited to question each member of the cast at some point in the proceedings and try and workout whodunnit! Teams will decide who committed the crime, and where and how and give their reasons, A prize will be allocated to the team judged to have given the most detailed and correct answer.
